Hamlin Oil Mill Said 'Cooperative Success Story of Year' by Davis

The revival of the Hamlin Oil Mill has been described as "The real cooperative success story of this period" by Roy B. Davis, General Manager of Plains Cooperative Oil Mill.

Organized as a cooperative 23 years ago, the mill halted operations March 15, 1964, until August 7 that year when Plains Cooperative leased the facilities from the Houston Bank of Cooperatives of Houston who had taken it by foreclosure July 7.

The story about the local mill was in the May-June issue of the Co-op Commentator, published by the Plains Cotton Cooperative Association.

It is located in one of the most competitive areas in Texas, the article states. This fact, along with fires, short crops and indifferent support all resulted in substantial operating losses. The Houston Bank for Cooperatives finally took over the mill to satisfy the unpaid debt. There were many who doubted that the mill could ever succeed as a

Survey Reveals Overwintered Boll Weevils On Increase Here

Overwintered boll weevils are now appearing in Jones County Cotton Fields at the rate of 600 per acre in certain areas of the county, according to a report this week from Jones County Agent, Kirby Clayton. Last week only 40% of the 28 fields being checked had overwintered weevils, this week 70 % of those fields had weevils. Per cent infestation on a per acre basis was 65-295 weevils last week, and up to 600 weevils per acre this week. Heaviest infestation is in the Nugent area on Mr. Doty's Farm.

Clayton reports that out of all fields checked the weevils had started laying eggs and many fields had grubs from egg stage to almost the pupa stage. This means poisoning operations should be based on a square puncture county basis from here on out, says the Agent. Clayton reported here this week that he believed most poisoning operations for first generation weevils should start around July 25 to August 1 and that it would probably take at least 3-4 applications to bring weevils under control. Some fields which have extra heavy overwintered weevils at this time, may need to poison before this time.

Fleahoppers are also building up in some fields and poisoning operations for their control might pay in those heavily infested fields. Other insects reported were, plant bugs, thrips, armyworms, bollworms, and cabbage loopers, but none of these in damaging infestations.

The insect survey team is sponsored by The Rolling Plains Cotton Growers Inc. and is working under the supervision of Jones County Agent, Kirby Clayton. Growers who want a more detailed report on the insect situation in the County should call the Agent's Office.

★ Make a Wish ... FOR HIS FUTURE ★

A birthday party really thrills the children, and probably the climax comes when they blow out the candles, and make a wish. His wish would probably be for a bright shiny new toy, but you as a parent would wish for him the things that really count, such as good health, happiness, friends and along with these deeper and more serious things should be a prayer for him to have the right interest and relationship to God. You can help these things by taking him to church Sunday.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

fifty years ago—in 1916—the first Piggly Wiggly opened its doors to an astonished public: "Imagine, waiting on yourself!" No one had ever tried it before and, of course, many said it wouldn't work.

How well it worked is obvious today, for virtually all stores enable you to "wait on yourself." Today we call it "self-service."

Piggly Wiggly pioneered in low cost foods—a tradition we proudly maintain to this day. Piggly Wiggly through the years has never met low prices... we keep them low!

Austin — There could be a new look around many Texas county commissioners courts under a reapportionment opinion laid down by the Texas Supreme Court in the case brought by Mayor Hank Avery of Midland.

Avery maintained that it isn't constitutional for one Midland County Commissioner to represent 95 per cent of the county's population — the City of Midland — while the other three commissioners represented only 5 per cent of the people.

Supreme Court agreed, 8-1, but with reservations. It held that the ratio was not fair representation, but that the re-division of county precincts, which it told Dist. Judge Joe B. Dibrell of Coleman to order could consider factors other than population.

Declining to extend the population-only rule which the U. S. Supreme Court has applied to state legislatures, Supreme Court held that a commissioner's court is not a legislative body. Court's majority wrote that the road, bridge and tax activities of the commissioners courts have more concern to rural residents than to city dwellers. In recent years, such courts have concerned themselves mainly with non-urban areas, leaving city matters to the city governments.

Supreme Court concluded that not just population, but also factors such as miles of county road, taxable values and geography, plus the "convenience of the people" set out in the Texas Constitution, can be taken into account by a commissioner's court in dividing the county into four precincts. High court agreed with Judge Dibrell that the present Midland County situation obviously is arbitrary and should be declared invalid.

Case either will go back to Judge Dibrell for final decision or will be appealed to the U. S. Supreme Court by either Mayor Avery or Midland County — since neither won a clear-cut victory.

Integration Warning — Sixty-four Texas school districts have received letters from the federal Office of Education warning of slowness in faculty integration, reports Leon R. Graham, assistant state education commissioner.

Graham said 33 other districts around the state were notified that they had violated federal law by failing to submit plans for integrating teachers.

He said the Office of Education expects districts to employ at least one Negro teacher for each school which as previously all-white and at least one white teacher for each previously all-Negro school. Some flexibility, however, is allowed, he added.

No federal funds will be given schools which fail to comply with the regulations of the Office of Education, Graham noted, and the federal government wants full-time teachers integrated, not part-timers or substitutes.

New Egg Report — Texas Department of Agriculture's Marketing Division begins publication of a new one-market price report July 19, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said.

Formerly, quotations from six separate state egg market areas were used in reporting egg prices. "Advantage of the new policy," White said, "is that the single statewide price quotation for each grade represents a true market for the state, so the information is more useful to producers and buyers alike."

Nurses Needed — Former Gov. Allan Shivers has launched a statewide campaign to pull Texas up from rank of 46th in the United States in number of registered nurses on the job.

More than 200 civic and business volunteers from all corners of the state joined with Shivers in seeking $12,000,000 within the next five year to recruit and teach enough nurses to make up for the 10,500 shortage now. Their meeting was the first of the Development Council of the Texas Hospital Association.

Experimenting With Precision Planter Being Done

Cotton planted at Texas A & M University with a precision planter on flat, pre-shaped beds was over a foot high. When adjacent cotton, planted on regular beds with a conventional planter was only about 6 or 8 inches high, according to Jones County Agent, Kirby Clayton.

According to Lambert Wilkes, agricultural engineer at A & M, the test is part of a project to determine how much better precision planting is than conventional planting.

Wilkes designed the bed shaper and precision planter. The planter has a furrow opener that slices into the soil and leaves a neat, clean seed trench. He says the bed shaper and planter last year boosted yields some 13 per cent.

This year, cotton planted by the conventional method took 14 days to reach a complete stand. That planted on the flat beds had a complete stand in only 6 days.

Now, says Clayton, there are three plants per row-foot in the precision planted cotton compared to one plant row-foot in the conventional planted cotton.

Clayton says the flat beds catch more sun and have a higher temperature—accounting for the faster germination and stand. He says with the precision planter there is minimum soil disturbance, resulting in a good soil-to-seed relationship.

This means healthier plants — less susceptible to seedling disease and other rigors. Also, the flat beds and precision planting conserve moisture.

Farm Families Urged to Take Part In National Safety Week

Austin — The Texas Safety Association today urged Texas farm families to join in observing National Farm Safety Week, July 24-30.

J. O. Musick, TSA General Manager, also urged all persons and organizations allied with agriculture to unite in the nationwide effort to reduce the number of accidents among farm families.

Accidents kills some 8,300 farm residents each year, and an additional 760,000 or more are victims of disabling injuries.

"This is an alarming situation, not only because of the grief to loved ones, the expense and unnecessary suffering, but also because of the monetary loss to the nation," Musick said. "Farm families and rural leaders must make a joint effort to eliminate hazards — at work, in the home, at play and on the road."

The 1966 farm safety campaign will place special emphasis on the prevention of highway accidents involving slow-moving farm vehicles.

Farm residents are being urged to use the new SMV emblem on all slow-moving vehicles, such as farm tractors.

tors. The emblem, a fluorescent yellow-orange colored triangle with a dark red reflective border about 14 inches high and 16 inches wide, is placed on the rear of a slow-moving vehicle so it can be easily seen by other drivers, day or night, from a distance of 500 feet or more.

The motoring public is being urged to stay on the alert for the emblem.

"The average motorist does not realize how slowly the vehicle ahead of him is moving until it is too late to avoid a collision," Musick explained.

"Under normal conditions, recognition of the emblem would provide ample time for the motorist to safely reduce his speed."

FAIRVIEW NEWS...

By Mrs. Elmer Joiner
Everyday seems to get hotter, but we have a lot of that kind of weather before fall, so all we can do is just make the best of it. Have heard a lot of griping in my life about the hot weather, but have failed to find one person able to do anything about it, other than stay inside with some kind of cooling system going. It is just human nature to fuss and fume so as long as there is hot weather it will probably be the main topic of conversation whenever people get together.

We had one visitor in church Sunday, Ronnie Herrington, Abilene, was with his cousin, Spencer Ford. They each have a new motorcycle and are really having the time of their lives riding them.

Our church was saddened Sunday on hearing the news of one of our tri-church brotherhood members, Donley Williams, who was a member of the Neinda Baptist Church. Mr. Williams was a faithful worker in all of his church's affairs as well as in civic affairs. It is not ours to question God's will, but when we see a young man that lives the life Donley did, we cannot help but try to find the answer. We, the people of the Fairview Church, as well as all the friends of our community, offer to his wife and children, parents, brother, and the host of relatives, our whole hearted sympathy and love.

Last weekend visitors of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Henry were Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Morse, of Irving. Mrs. Morse is a niece of Mrs. Henry.

It was my privilege to make the tour, along with three other women, and last years Gold Star 4H Club Girl, Karen Sullivan, to the homes of the two candidates for the award, this year. Mrs. Maxey Harvey, Mrs. Frank Carter, Mrs. Noble Greer and myself, along with Karen, first visited with Marilyn Maxwell, who is a member of the Noodle 4H Club, living five miles south of Noodle. Next we visited in the home of Cindy Debusk, a member of the Anson 4H Club, and lives north of Anson in the Plainview community. It is almost unbelievable what a thirteen and a fourteen year old girl can accomplish, when she

are interested. Both girls had done an excellent job in everything they had done and it was almost impossible to give it to one of them, we all just wished there could be two awards, but there had to be a choice made. Both girls are such sweet, nice, industrious girls and both deserved to win. Sometimes it is easier to stay out of things than have to make such hard decisions.

Monday morning visitor of Mrs. Henry was Mrs. Woodrow Goodwin, who went to see what was wrong with the Henrys Sunday, and found they had been snowed under with company.

Rev. and Mrs. R. M. Babb made a short visit with the Henrys Friday night, also going to visit with the Flavel Holmes. Other visitors of the Holmes were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ford.

The women that will work in the women's division of the Fair, met in Anson last Thursday morning to make plans for the women's exhibits, which will be in the community center, across from the Pioneer Hall, formerly the site of the womens division. The building is the former girl scout hut, but is now city owned. The building was looked over and plans made where each division would be. There will be the Home Demonstration Clubs, art, antiques, junior divisions, womens exhibits, foods, will all be in this place with a promise of some coolers installed in the windows, which sounds much better than the terrific heat of the past in the womens department. The Jones County Demonstration Club Council will operate a concession stand on the fair grounds, so if you go and get hungry, do not forget them.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyal Bills and their friends Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Endriect and little son, arrived at the Winson Grays Thursday, after a reported wonderful vacation at Glorieta, New Mexico. The Endriect's went on after spending the night but the Bills' spent until Saturday with her parents, taking the girls home after they had two weeks with Grandpa and Grandma Gray. We wonder how the little things are faring this week after two weeks spoiling.

Went to Abilene last Thursday to drive Mrs. Hampton to the Rehab. Center. Found her well excepting her paralyzed leg still swelling and paining her quite a lot.

Plans have been completed for our Revival, which will run from August 12-21st. As we stated last week Rev. Billy Burke, Wichita Falls, will be the evangelist, Alton "Tooter" Hewitt, Hamlin, will lead the singing, with Linda Goodwin at the Piano. We are hoping for lots of visitors and a wonderful revival. Rev. Burke is reputed to be a wonderful preacher and a smart man, we are looking forward to having him.

The revival of the Hamlin Oil Mill has been described as "The real cooperative success story of this period" by Roy B. Davis, General Manager of Plains Cooperative Oil Mill.

Organized as a cooperative 23 years ago, the mill halted operations March 15, 1964, until August 7 that year when Plains Cooperative leased the facilities from the Houston Bank of Cooperatives of Houston who had taken it by foreclosure July 7.

The story about the local mill was in the May-June issue of the Cooperative Commentator, published by the Plains Co-op Cooperative Association.

It is located in one of the most competitive areas in Texas, the article states. This fact, along with fires, short crops and indifferent support all resulted in substantial operating losses. The Houston Bank for Cooperatives finally took over the mill to satisfy the unpaid debt. There were many who doubted that the mill could ever succeed as a

Baptist Area-Wide Meeting Tonight At Lueders Camp

Don Elliott of Healdton, Okla., will be the speaker for the area wide meeting of Baptist men to be held at Lueders Baptist Encampment tonight (Thursday).

The meeting will begin with swimming at 5 p. m. Supper will be served at 6 p. m. Gene Brown of Munday will preside during the program which begins at 8 p. m.

Rev. Byron Bryant, pastor of the Hamlin First Baptist Church and president of Lueders Encampment will discuss the Encampment Enlargement Plan.

The meeting is sponsored by the eight associations supporting the Lueders Encampment. These are Abilene, Callahan, Cisco, Fisher, Haskell-Knox, Jones, Sweetwater and Stonewall-Kent.

Leaders from the gins in the Rolling Plains felt that the mill should operate as a cooperative. They suggested that the Plains Cooperative Oil Mill at Lubbock lease the mill from the Bank, and promised to deliver enough seed for a profitable operation. This was two years ago, and at this time Jerry Williams was named manager.

The mill is now crushing on 29,600 tons of seed from the current crop delivered by 31 gins.

E. E. West is mill superintendent.

The number of employees varies with the season. At this time there are 32 persons employed at an approximate weekly payroll of $3,000.00 upwards.

Earnings of mill have exceeded all expectations. A $4 per ton seed price adjustment was paid in February. Additional earnings of 3.25 per ton are now on the books and there will be more when the crush is completed.

A new lease for the 1966-67 season has been signed with the Houston Bank for Cooperatives.

Survey Reveals Overwintered Boll Weevils On Increase Here

Overwintered boll weevils are now appearing in Jones County Cotton Fields at the rate of 600 per acre in certain areas of the county, according to a report this week from Jones County Agent, Kirby Clayton. Last week only 40% of the 28 fields being checked had overwintered weevils, this week 70 % of those fields had weevils. Per cent infestation on a per acre basis was 65-295 weevils last week, and up to 600 weevils per acre this week. Heaviest infestation is in the Nugent area on Mr. Doty's Farm.

Clayton reports that out of all fields checked the weevils had started laying eggs and many fields had grubs from egg stage to almost the pupa stage. This means poisoning operations should be based on a square puncture county basis from here on out, says the Agent. Clayton reported here this week that he believed most poisoning operations for first generation weevils should start around July 25 to August 1 and that it would probably take at least 3-4 applications to bring weevils under control. Some fields which have extra heavy overwintered weevils at this time, may need to poison before this time.

Fleahoppers are also building up in some fields and poisoning operations for their control might pay in those heavily infested fields. Other insects reported were, plant bugs, thrips, armyworms, bollworms, and cabbage loopers, but none of these in damaging infestations.

The insect survey team is sponsored by The Rolling Plains Cotton Growers Inc. and is working under the supervision of Jones County Agent, Kirby Clayton. Growers who want a more detailed report on the insect situation in the County should call the Agent's Office.

REV. JOHN HOLLAND
... to preach Sunday

Make a Wish

FOR HIS FUTURE

A birthday party really thrills the children, and probably the climax comes when they blow out the candles, and make a wish. His wish would probably be for a bright shiny new toy, but you as a parent would wish for him the things that really count, such as good health, happiness, friends and along with these deeper and more serious things should be a prayer for him to have the right interest and relationship to God. You can help these things by taking him to church Sunday.

How well it worked is obvious today, for virtually all stores enable you to "wait on yourself." Today we call it "self-service."

Piggly Wiggly pioneered in low cost foods—a tradition we proudly maintain to this day. Piggly Wiggly through the years has never met low prices... we keep them low!

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

Austin — There could be a new look around many Texas county commissioners courts under a reapportionment opinion laid down by the Texas Supreme Court in the case brought by Mayor Hank Avery of Midland.

Avery maintained that it isn't constitutional for one Midland County Commissioner to represent 95 per cent of the county's population — the City of Midland — while the other three commissioners represented only 5 per cent of the people.

Supreme Court agreed, 8-1, but with reservations. It held that the ratio was not fair representation, but that the re-division of county precincts, which it told Dist. Judge Joe B. Dibrell of Coleman to order could consider factors other than population.

Declining to extend the population-only rule which the U. S. Supreme Court has applied to state legislatures, Supreme Court held that a commissioners court is not a legislative body. Court's majority wrote that the road, bridge and tax activities of the commissioners courts have more concern to rural residents than to city dwellers. In recent years, such courts have concerned themselves mainly with non-urban areas, leaving city matters to the city governments.

Supreme Court concluded that not just population, but also factors such as miles of county road, taxable values and geography, plus the "convenience of the people" set out in the Texas Constitution, can be taken into account by a commissioners court in dividing the county into four precincts. High court agreed with Judge Dibrell that the present Midland County situation obviously is arbitrary and should be declared invalid.

Case either will go back to Judge Dibrell for final decision or will be appealed to the U. S. Supreme Court by either Mayor Avery or Midland County — since neither won a clear-cut victory.

Intergration Warning — Sixty-four Texas school districts have received letters from the federal Office of Education warning of slowness in faculty intergration, reports Leon R. Graham, assistant state education commissioner.

Graham said 33 other districts around the state were notified that they had violated federal law by failing to submit plans for intergrating teachers.

He said the Office of Education expects districts to employ at least one Negro teacher for each school which as previously all-white and at least one white teacher for each previously all-Negro school. Some flexibility, however, is allowed, he added.

No federal funds will be given schools which fail to comply with the regulations of the Office of Education, Graham noted, and the federal government wants full-time teachers intergrated, not part-timers or substitutes.

New Egg Report — Texas Department of Agriculture's Marketing Division begins publication of a new one-market price report July 19, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said.

Formerly, quotations from six separate state egg market areas were used in reporting egg prices. "Advantage of the new policy," White said, "is that the single statewide price quotation for each grade represents a true market for the state, so the information is more useful to producers and buyers alike."

Nurses Needed — Former Gov. Allan Shivers has launched a statewide campaign to pull Texas up from rank of 46th in the United States in number of registered nurses on the job.

More than 200 civic and business volunteers from all corners of the state joined with Shivers in seeking $12,000,000 within the next five year to recruit and teach enough nurses to make up for the 10,500 shortage now. Their meeting was the first of the Development Council of the Texas Hospital Association; health careers program, Gerald Mann of Dallas, newly appointed chairman of the development council, said the group will ask the Legislature for funds to fight the critical shortage of nurses.

More Air Service — Texas Aeronautics Commission approved applications by two small airlines to provide three new state routes.

Houston Commuter Airlines, a new organization, will run two flights daily between Houston and Laredo with a "whistle stop" at Alice. Hood Airlines of Killean will extend its present service to include a Houston - Fort. Worth flight and a separate Killean - Houston run.

Attorney General Rules — Out-of-state witnesses in felony trials and grand jury hearings must be paid by counties up to limit of $2,000, at usual rate for out-of-county witnesses, Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr held.

In other official opinions, Carr ruled that:

A city judge sitting as a magistrate has jurisdiction to accept local complaints in cases which he cannot try, issue warrants of arrests and transfer the cases to other magistrates for examining trial.

Vocational Rehabilitation Division of Texas Education Agency can pay tuition for handicapped persons to attend denominational schools for training.

Thirty-one-year-old dormant Galveston Junior College still is in legal existence and may be reactivated by disannexation of overlapped territory of another district.

Experimenting With Precision Planter Being Done

...Cotton planted at Texas A & M University with a precision planter on flat, pre-shaped beds was over a foot high. When adjacent cotton, planted on regular beds with a conventional planter was only about 6 to 8 inches high, according to Jones County Agent, Kirby Clayton.

According to Lambert Wilkes, agricultural engineer at A & M, the test is part of a project to determine how much better precision planting is than conventional planting.

Wilkes designed the bed shaper and precision planter. The planter has a furrow opener that slices into the soil and leaves a neat, clean seed trench. He says the bed shaper and planter last year boosted yields some 13 percent.

This year, cotton planted by the conventional method took 14 days to reach a complete stand. That planted on the flat beds had a complete stand in only 6 days.

Now, says Clayton, there are three plants per row-foot in the precision planted cotton compared to one plant row-foot in the conventional planted cotton.

Clayton says the flat beds catch more sun and have a higher temperature—accounting for the faster germination and stand. He says with the precision planter there is minimum soil disturbance, resulting in a good soil-to-seed relationship.

This means healthier plants — less susceptible to seedling disease and other rigors. Also, the flat beds and precision planting conserve moisture.

Farm Families Urged to Take Part In National Safety Week

Austin — The Texas Safety Association today urged Texas farm families to join in observing National Farm Safety Week, July 24-30.

J. O. Musick, TSA General Manager, also urged all persons and organizations allied with agriculture to unite in the nationwide effort to reduce the number of accidents among farm families.

Accidents kills some 8,300 farm residents each year, and an additional 760,000 or more are victims of disabling injuries.

"This is an alarming situation, not only because of the grief to loved ones, the expense and unnecessary suffering, but also because of the monetary loss to the nation," Musick said. "Farm families and rural leaders must make a joint effort to eliminate hazards — at work, in the home, at play and on the road."

The 1956 farm safety campaign will place special emphasis on the prevention of highway accidents involving slow-moving farm vehicles.

Farm residents are being urged to use the new SMV emblem on all slow-moving vehicles, such as farm tractors.

The emblem, a fluorescent yellow-orange colored triangle with a dark red reflective border about 14 inches high and 16 inches wide, is placed on the rear of a slow-moving vehicle so it can be easily seen by other drivers, day or night, from a distance of 500 feet or more.

The motoring public is being urged to stay on the alert for the emblem.

"The average motorist does not realize how slowly the vehicle ahead of him is moving until it is too late to avoid a collision," Musick explained.

"Under normal conditions, recognition of the emblem would provide ample time for the motorist to safely reduce his speed."

FAIRVIEW NEWS ...

By Mrs. Elmer Joiner
Everyday seems to get hotter, but we have a lot of that kind of weather before fall, so all we can do is just make the best of it. Have heard a lot of griping in my life about the hot weather, but have failed to find one person able to do anything about it, other than stay inside with some kind of cooling system going. It is just human nature to fuss and fume so as long as there is hot weather it will probably be the main topic of conversation whenever people get together.

We had one visitor in church Sunday, Ronnie Herrington, Abilene, was with his cousin, Spencer Ford. They each have a new motorcycle and are really having the time of their lives riding them.

Our church was saddened Sunday on hearing the news of one of our tri-church brotherhood members, Donley Williams, who was a member of the Neinda Baptist Church. Mr. Williams was a faithful worker in all of his church's affairs as well as in civic affairs. It is not ours to question God's will, but when we see a young man that lives the life Donley did, we cannot help but try to find the answer. We, the people of the Fairview Church, as well as all the friends of our community, offer to his wife and children, parents, brother, and the host of relatives, our whole hearted sympathy and love.

Last weekend visitors of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Henry were Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Morse, of Irving. Mrs. Morse is a niece of Mrs. Henry.

It was my privilege to make the tour, along with three other women, and last years Gold Star 4H Club Girl, Karen Sullivan, to the homes of the two candidates for the award, this year. Mrs. Maxey Harvey, Mrs. Frank Carter, Mrs. Noble Greer and myself, along with Karen, first visited with Marilyn Maxwell, who is a member of the Noodle 4H Club, living five miles south of Noodle. Next we visited in the home of Cindy Debusk, a member of the Anson 4H Club, and lives north of Anson in the Plainview community. It is almost unbelievable what a thirteen and a fourteen year old girl can accomplish, when she

are interested. Both girls had done an excellent job in every thing they had done and it was almost impossible to give it to one of them, we all just wished there could be two awards, but there had to be a choice made. Both girls are such sweet, nice, industrious girls and both deserved to win. Sometimes it is easier to stay out of things than have to make such hard decisions.

Monday morning visitor of Mrs. Henry was Mrs. Woodrow Goodwin, who went to see what was wrong with the Henrys Sunday, and found they had been snowed under with company.

Rev. and Mrs. R. M. Babb made a short visit with the Henrys Friday night, also going to visit with the Flavel Holmes. Other visitors of the Holmes were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ford.

The women that will work in the women's division of the Fair, met in Anson last Thursday morning to make plans for the women's exhibits, which will be in the community center, across from the Pioneer Hall, formerly the site of the women's division. The building is the former girl scout hut, but is now city owned. The building was looked over and plans made where each division would be. The will be the Home Demonstration Clubs, art, antiques, junior divisions, womens exhibits, foods, will all be in this place with a promise of some coolers installed in the windows, which sounds much better than the terrific heat of the past in the womens department. The Jones County Demonstration Club Council will operate a concession stand on the fair grounds, so if you go and get hungry, do not forget them.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyal Bills and their friends Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Endtriet and little son, arrived at the Winson Grays Thursday, after a reported wonderful vacation at Glorietta, New Mexico. The Endtriet's went on after spending the night but the Bills' spent until Saturday with her parents, taking the girls home after they had two weeks with Grandpa and Grandma Gray. We wonder how the little things are faring this week after two weeks spoiling.

Went to Abilene last Thursday to drive Mrs. Hampton to the Rehab. Center. Found her well excepting her paralyzed leg still swelling and paining her quite a lot.

Plans have been completed for our Revival, which will run from August 12-21st. As we stated last week Rev. Billy Burke, Wichita Falls, will be the evangelist, Alton "Tooter" Hewitt, Hamlin, will lead the singing, with Linda Goodwin at the Piano. We are hoping for lots of visitors and a wonderful revival. Rev. Burke is reputed to be a wonderful preacher and a smart man, we are looking forward to having him.
